

Name: Paul OLMSTEAD
Home: Stony Plain Alberta

Paul has over 26 years in law enforcement and during that time has specialized in Search and Rescue as a trainer, course developer and SAR Manager. He is associated with the Search and Rescue Alberta Association as past president and their training coordinator.

A trainer by nature; over the last ten years has been involved in writing courses and training standards in the artic. Paul is often asked to consult or speak to interest groups on related matters.

In 2003 Paul was the recipient of the Federal National Search and Rescue Secretariat "Outstanding SAR Achievement" award for his contribution to SAR efforts in Canada.

On his off time Paul is an avid outdoors person hiking, canoeing and kayaking as well he enjoys a pilot's license and any related aviation activity.