Dear Bill:

Recently I had the opportunity to promote your new instructional manual and DVD "What Do Those Numbers Mean Anyway?" in the House of Commons. My statement was recorded in Hansard, the official transcript of Canadian Parliamentary Debates.

Enclosed is a copy of Hansard for Wednesday, December 8, 2004. On page 2446 you will find the text I read in the House recognizing your work.

Congratulations once again on your most recent achievement. I'm sure that "What Do Those Numbers Mean Anyway?" will go a long way in educating GPS users on how to make the best use of this emerging technology.

Sincerely,

Anthony Rota, M.P.

Encl.
